

M.A. Program of Study Worksheet (for M1)
Department of Philosophy, University of Missouri-Columbia
June 2014

Instructions: Complete the following and submit along with your M1 form. List courses that you will take in appropriate section. If the course is transferred from elsewhere, annotate with "(trans)".

Your name: _____

(A) Proto-Seminar (8100; 3 credits) _____

(B) Intermediate Logic (7110; 3 credits) _____

(C) History (at least one of 9050 Plato, 9060 Aristotle, 9110 Rationalists, 9120 Empiricists, 9130 Kant, 9210 Hegel, 9240 Russell and Wittgenstein; 3 credits each)

---

(D) Core Areas (at least one of: 9320 Social and Political Philosophy, 9520 Ethical Theory, 8510 Metaphysics: A Survey, 8520 Philosophy of Mind: A Survey, 8540 Philosophy of Language: A Survey, 9610 Metaphysics, 9710 Philosophy of Mind, 9840 Seminar in Philosophy of Language, 8530 Epistemology: A Survey, 9820 Epistemology, 9830, Philosophy of Science; 3 credits each)

---

(E) Research Hours (8090/9090; specify number of credits):

---

(F) Other Courses (specify number of credits for each course)

---

Student must have 30 hours of graduate credit (7000 or higher) satisfying the following conditions:

- courses must be completed with grade of B or better
- at least 15 hours of course work must be at the 9000-level
- at most 3 hours (9 hours if toward a minor in Ancient Studies) may be outside philosophy
- at most 6 (8, for students pursuing a second M.A. degree) graduate credit hours may be transferred from another university, or from another campus of the UM System, and this requires the approval of the Director of Graduate Studies and advisor.

On your M-1 (Plan of Study), be sure to list the credit hours for each course.